We all walk a path with our Lord from the day of baptism. We fall off from time to time, and as I continue on mine, I see all the blessings along the way.

The path was not always straight, but the crooked one helped me rediscover our heavenly Father.

He continuously picks me up when I fall.

The loss of my beautiful mother last September was a devastating fall. She was the glue that held our family together. My loving family, church family, and friends were a true blessing to me during this sad time.

The day before mom passed, Pastor Faron and I witnessed the Holy Spirit reaching out to my mother.

What a "miraculous moment" what a "Blessing". I will never forget that moment!!

I know my mother saw the face of Jesus.

Thank you, Lord, for helping me understand your presence in my life.
