An Easter Reflection by Pastor Mark...

This year, the season of Lent continues well into the month of April; April 20th is one of the latest days on which Easter can fall. Spring flowers are blooming and we yearn for Easter Sunday to arrive.

Luke 23 ends with Jesus' body in the tomb and the women who have accompanied Jesus leaving the tomb and going to wherever they are staying to prepare spices. Their intent is to return to the tomb after the Jewish Sabbath and properly prepare Jesus' body for burial.

Chapter 24 begins with the word, "BUT." In fact, the Greek word for "but" is used four times in the first five verses. English translators, however, do not reflect that frequent useage in their work. That word, "but" should clue us in that something is about to change. There is a reversal coming and the writer of the Gospel of Luke lets us know there is change happening and it is no small change.

Luke 24:1-5: "But on the first day of the week, at early dawn, they came to the tomb, taking the spices that they had prepared. 2 But they found the stone rolled away from the tomb, 3but when they went in, they did not find the body. 4While they were perplexed about this, suddenly two men in dazzling clothes stood beside them. 5But the women were {filled with fear}* and bowed their faces to the ground, the men said to them, "Why do you look for the living among the dead? He is not here, but has risen."

It is no accident the writer of Luke wanted to make the point that something had changed by repeating the Greek word for "but." The "BUT" is there was no body when on the day before the Sabbath there was a body. The "BUT" is the resurrection Good news: Jesus is not here BUT he is risen.

If "but" signals good news in the gospel, what do the "buts" in our lives signify? We have encountered "buts." Often we think of a "but" event, we think of it as a precursor for something bad about to happen to us or has happened to us. I could name a number of current events in 2025 where "but" was the precursor for bad news. And that the bad news outweighs the good news.

Regardless of how the world thinks of "but" being the precursor of hearing about bad news or events, the Easter Sunday "BUT" is always Good News. This year that is the Resurrection Good News: BUT.

Marna and I wish all a blessed Easter Season this year.

Pastor Mark W. Fischer

*Closer translation of the Greek. Most English translations use the word "terrified."

Recently, I was presented with an inquiry about Holy Communion. That inquiry gave me pause to reflect on 1) What do the various Lutheran Confessional documents say about Holy Communion?, 2) Who should be allowed to come to the Lord's Table? & 3) Should someone be excluded from the Lord's Table?

1) What do the various Lutheran Confessional documents say about Holy Communion?

>Article X of the Augsburg Confession says that the true body and blood of Jesus are truly present under the form of bread and wine. Any teaching that The Lord's Supper is a unrepeatable historical event, as a memorial of Christ's death, or as a spiritual encounter with Christ are rejected.

>In Luther's Small Catechism, Luther writes that it is the true body and blood of Jesus under the bread and wine. The benefit of he eating and drinking is found in the words, "given for you" and "shed for you for the forgiveness of sin" shows us that forgiveness of sin, life, and salvation are given to us in the Sacrament of Holy Communion.

2) Who should be allowed to come to the Lord's Table?

>Yes, there are faith traditions that will exclude people from coming to The Sacrament of Holy Communion. When I preside/officiate at a funeral and there is Holy communion, I will say something to the effect that all are welcome to come to the Table and that I recognize that there are faith traditions that would rather a person not commune. That person is still welcome to come forward for a blessing.

>I will not turn away anyone who comes up to me during distribution with their hands open to receive the Body of Christ regardless of their age. Luther is the Large Catechism call Holy Communion "Food for the Soul." Young children are curious and inquisitive and they like to imitate and model what they see their parents doing. I know there are young children here at St. David's who have not participated in First Communion Class who receive the Sacrament of Holy Communion. Tradition and practice when I was growing up was that one could not come to Holy Communion without first being confirmed which at Union Lutheran Church was 10th grade. In the late 60's/early 70's, there was a movement toward letting elementary age and above commune by participating in a First Communion Class. I think the age/grade was 10 yrs/5th grade. At St. David's, First Communion Class happens in 2nd grade.

>>If your child desires to commune earlier than 2nd grade, it would be helpful for parents to talk with their children about what is taking place in the eating and drinking. If parents are not sure what to say, please come and see me.

3) Should someone be excluded from the Lord's Table?

>We all sin and fall short of God's expectations. We are all in need of forgiveness for our sins. We all need to come to the table for the food and drink that nourishes and feeds us so we can live and resist the devil and all his empty promises and we can live faithfully. I would not exclude anyone because sin is sin regardless of the sin; there is no hierarchy on sin. Might I counsel someone on the need to be repentant; yes. But exclude them from The Lord's Table? No.

Join us for Easter Breakfast!

Please join us in between Easter services. Breakfast will be available from 7:45 – 8:45AM.

If you can donate pastries, breads, donuts, muffins, fruit, etc. for breakfast, we would greatly appreciate it. Someone will be at the church this Saturday morning, April 19th, from 9 – 11am to accept your donations. You can also bring any donations on Easter morning. Please do not bring casseroles in order to keep the breakfast as simple as possible. Volunteers are also needed to set up and clean up. If you're able to help and planning to go to the later service, come early Easter morning to help set up (we'll meet in the kitchen at 7); If you can help and are planning to go to the early service, stay later and help with cleanup. If you have any questions, you may contact Sherri or Pink Andrews 814-479-7061 (leave a message and someone from the fellowship team will get back to you).

Thanks!

The Fellowship Team

After receiving very positive feedback from last year, we are happy to announce that we will be celebrating a service of "Holy Humor" at both the 8am & 10:30 am services, on April 27th. This is the Sunday where the tradition, since medieval times, in many churches has been to laugh at the devil because God has pulled the ultimate prank of raising Christ from the dead. We hope you will join us for a service filled with laughter, joy, and celebration of our risen Lord. Come, experience worship in a new and hilarious way! We welcome all to dress in your craziest outfit or Halloween costume and bring your favorite noise maker!

April 27th is Volunteer Appreciation Sunday and all are welcome - volunteers, those considering being a volunteer and those that are thankful for volunteers! The Worship & Music team wanted to set aside time to be thankful for all the gifts of time and talent that contribute to the faith life of St David's. What better way than a meal and fellowship! Please join us at 12:00PM on April 27th in the Fellowship Hall. Signing up (located in the Narthex) is greatly appreciated. But if you miss signup, please don't let that keep you from joining us. See you then!

The Worship & Music Team

Everything I learned about I life, I learned from Noah's Ark

1. Plan ahead. It wasn't raining when Noah built the ark.
2. Stay fit. When you're 600 years old, someone might ask you to do something Really big.
3. Don't listen to critics. Do what has to be done.
4. Build your future on the high ground.
5. For safety's sake, travel in pairs.
6. Two heads are better than one.
7. Speed isn't always an advantage. The cheetahs were on board, but so were the snails.
8. When you're stressed, float for a while.
9. Don't forget that we're all in the same boat.
10. When the doo-doo gets really deep, don't sit there and complain– shovel!
11. Stay below deck during the storm.
12. Remember that the ark was built by amateurs & the Titanic was built by professionals.
13. Remember that the woodpeckers INSIDE are often a bigger threat than the storm OUTSIDE.
14. No matter how bleak it looks, there's always a rainbow on the other side.
15. DON'T MISS THE BOAT!!!!

On Sunday, April 27th after the late service. St. David's Confirmation class will be challenging St. David's Council to a game of Bible and Small Catechism trivia. Come down and cheer on your favorite team!

Pastor Fischer will make the update to the wedding planning guide that wedding couples should have a point person, that would be a volunteer, not someone that is paid. Pastor Fischer will send to Council to review planner.

Other Business/Discussions for the good of the church:

- Fellowship Hall Guidelines and questions: Discussion around whether the fellowship hall can be rented on Sundays. Rachel Thomas-Kimmel stated there is a vague statement in the Fellowship Hall policy that no cooking is to occur while church services are taking place. Will update the Fellowship Hall to be clearer that the fellowship hall cannot be used before noon on Sundays and to establish a time hall renters would need to leave (potentially 9:00 PM) to allow Brad Kaufman time to cleanup and also setup for yoga on Mondays. Was decided that while these updates are being made, the whole policy should be reviewed. Rachel Thomas-Kimmel will forward Fellowship Hall agreement for all to review.

Rachel Thomas-Kimmel mentioned wanting to streamline communication between council members, potentially a text thread to make it easier to discuss quick turnaround items such as whether services should be canceled during inclement weather, will discuss further at the March Council meeting.

Next meeting will be March 27, 2025 at 6:30 PM in C19 upstairs.

Meeting adjourned at 7:36 PM. Meeting was adjourned with the Lord's prayer

Respectfully submitted,
Lauren A. Bungard
Council Secretary
